易经

'Yi' means 'to change' and 'Jing' refers to 'the classic'. It presents a cuisine philosophy that combines simplicity with contemporary interpretations from across the diverse regions of China.

The menu repertoire celebrates dominant culinary traditions from Sichuan and Hunan provinces, incorporating traditional cooking techniques and unique ingredients in refreshing and inventive ways.

The highlights of this pan Chinese culinary line up are the intricately handcrafted dimsums, deftly pulled handmade noodles, barbecued specialties from the impressive duck oven, immersive tastes from the wokery and delectable desserts that are comforting and adventurous at the same time.

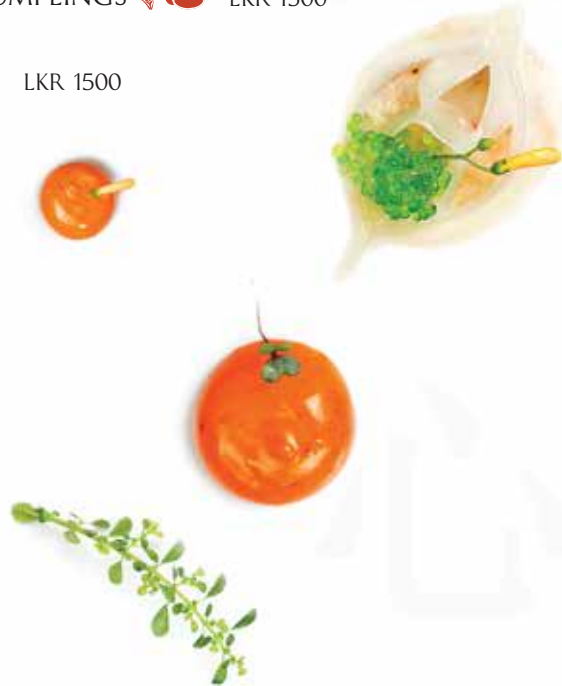

Enjoy the vibrant environs at Yi Jing, custom curations at the restaurant's private dining room and this unique culinary journey.
